CATSKILL HIGH SCHOOL

CATSKILL, NEW YORK

When we entered Catskill High School
With qualms quite far from few,
For a Fresh without his mother
Scarcely knows what he should do;
When we saw our high school colors
They looked so fresh and new,
That since we've used no others
Than the Orange and the Blue.

Although lessons make us weary
And at history we sigh,
And when we flunk our Regents
Fond hopes should never die:
But we cannot be forgetful
Of the time that passes by,
While we are jolly students
In our dear old Catskill High.

When at last we enter college
In that dim sweet bye and bye,
When at last we enter college
In that dim sweet bye and bye,
How can I bear to leave thee?
Is the universal cry,
As students leave old Catskill,
And dear old Catskill High.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. Paul T. Sellers
"Farewell, our friend and guide."

Paul T. Sellers

We, the members of the class of '53, now that we are leaving, want to express our thanks to you: thanks for helping us so often in little ways, which we might not have noticed; thanks for overlooking our multitude of faults and the number of times we have committed them; thanks for being understanding, even when this understanding seemed to be unappreciated; thanks for helping us stay on the "straight and narrow path," and, above all, thanks for letting us have such a wonderful time in High School.

Mr. Louis Frani

"None but himself could be his parallel."

DEDICATION

To whom else could we possibly dedicate this yearbook? You were new and we were new, so we teamed up, and look at all we have accomplished! Without your help and guidance we could not have had those wonderful dances, that terrific Prom, and all the other successful functions. So, to you, Mr. Frani, we dedicate our yearbook. We give it to you as part of ourselves. We have fashioned it with our hands and our hearts. And we want you to have it, not only as our Adviser for four years, but our "favorite teacher" as well.

AN APPRECIATION

"Without their help we could not have succeeded."

We should like to take this opportunity to thank Mrs. Gladys Cunningham, Mrs. Roberta Mower and Mrs. Hedwig Rusack for their never-ceasing help.

Certainly without Mrs. Cunningham's aid in our Senior play, we could not have arrived at the profit which helped make this yearbook possible.

Without Mrs. Mower's generous assistance, our yearbook could not have been typed nor would our class productions have had programs.

And without petite Mrs. Rusack, "our favorite teacher," there would be no yearbook, as she has devoted something that no one can buy: time and patience.

These three have advised us in our difficulties and have helped us avoid pitfalls. Therefore, to all three of you, we extend our heartfelt gratitude.

SENIORS

History of Class of '53

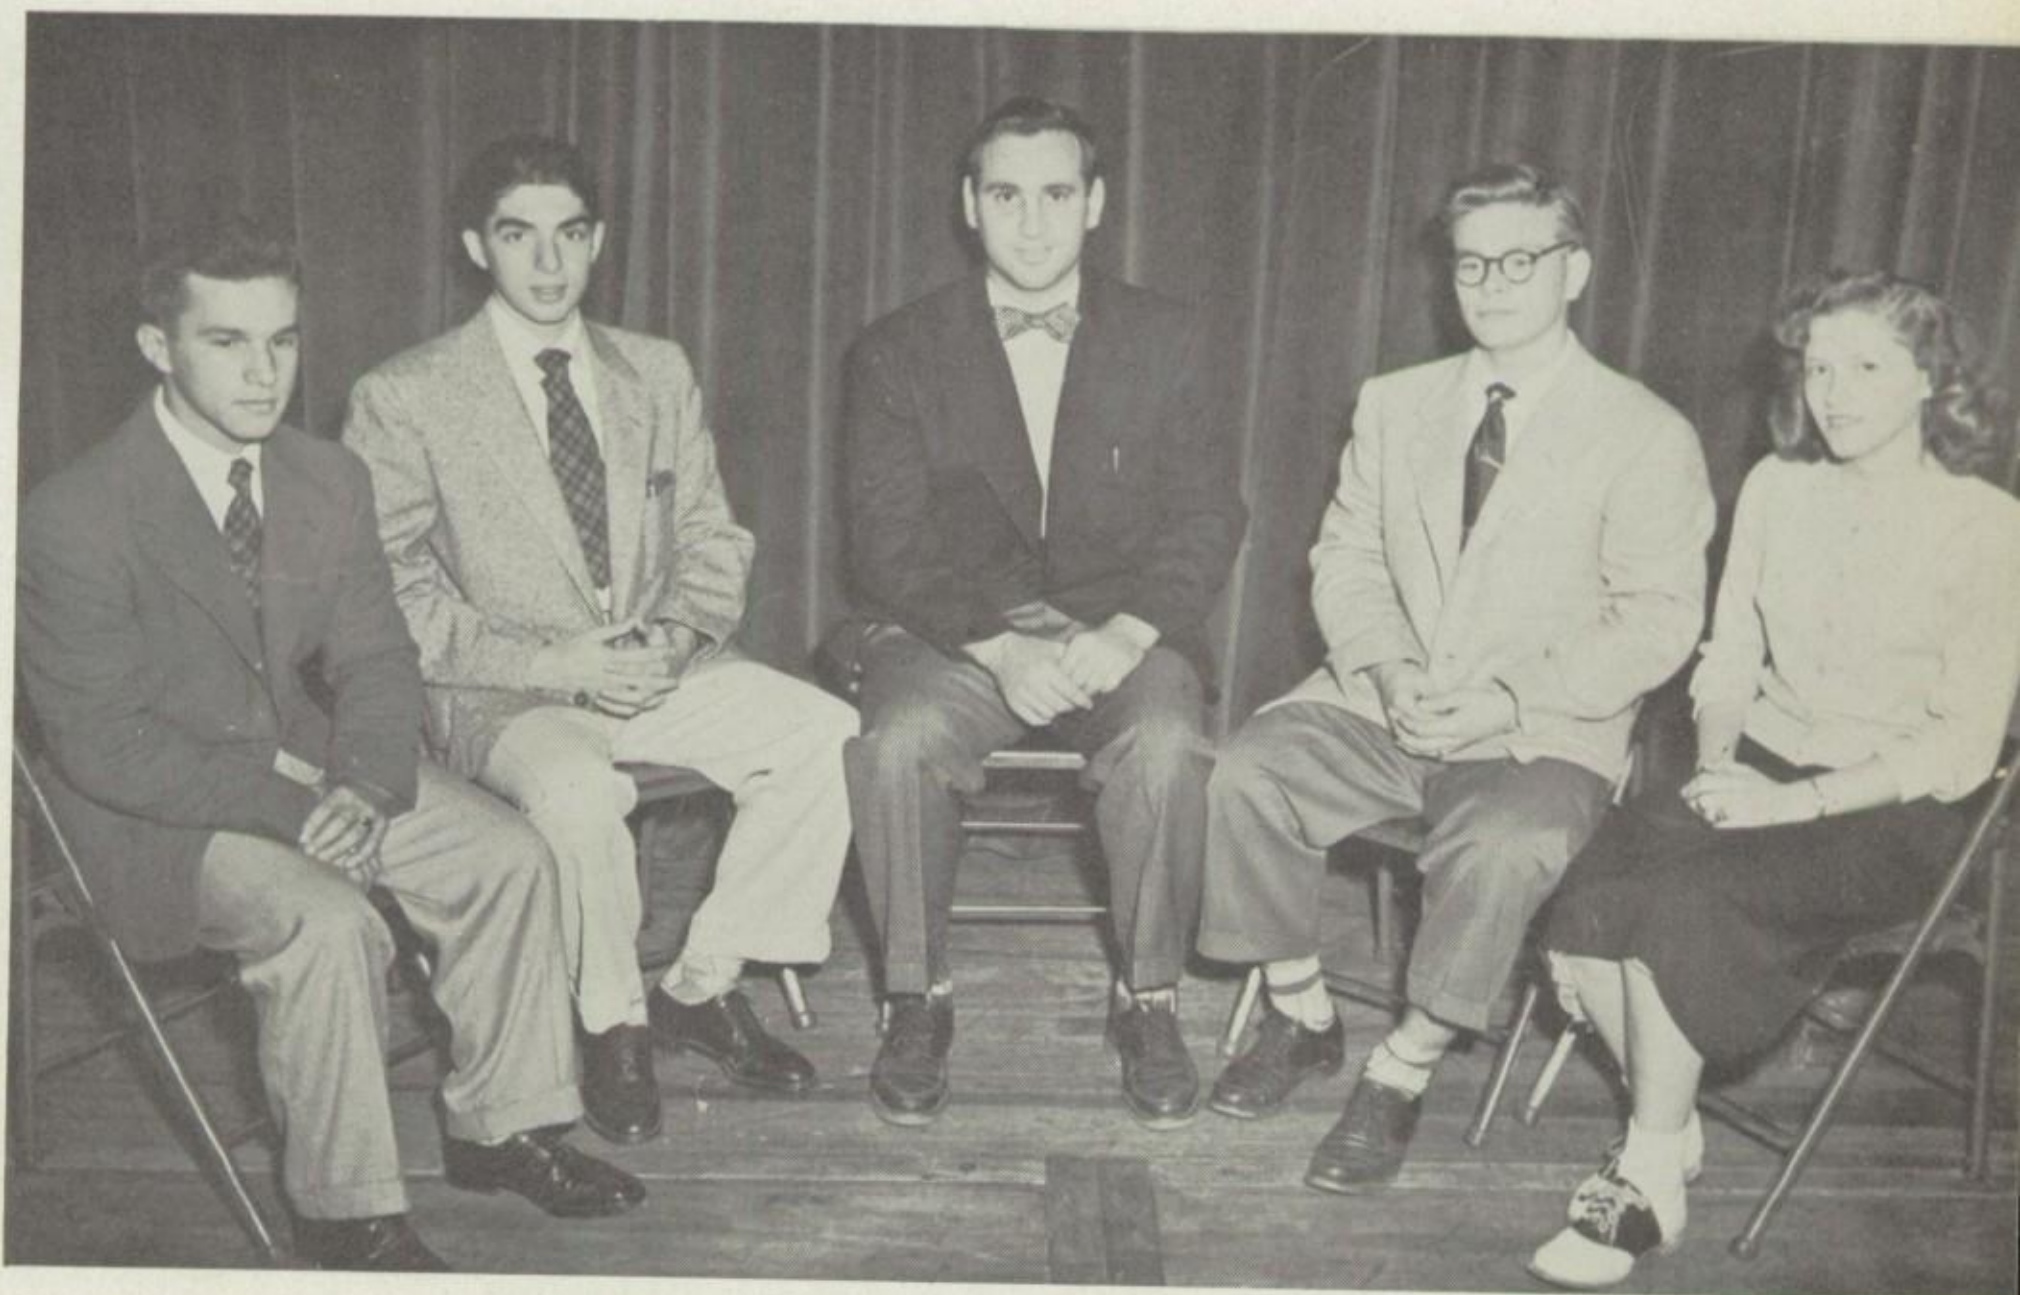

by Pan Libman

We came here in '48.
Mark it well. It was the date
That the Class of '53
Started making history!
Seventh grade proved lots of fun
And we loved it, everyone.
At the end we took a boat
And to Kingston we did float.
'49 came round too soon,
We our studies did resume.
Bennington was our last fling.
"Now we're Freshmen" we did sing!
Cooper, Yerky, Gallt and Post
Were the ones we wanted most.
That's when Frani came to be
Our adviser, don't you see?
Christmas came. We had a dance.
Our "Sno-Ball" was our big chance
To prove to them that we'd be
The best class in history!
Following that big success
(After giving them a rest)
Still another brought us fame.
"Mardi-Gras" was that one's name.
Then we beat them all in ball,
Showing we were best of all!
To Taconic then we went.
On having fun, we were bent!
Sophomores next we became.
When we took this mighty name
We kept Rose, and Ray as Veep,
Lil, and Post — They didn't sleep!
First a dance: "Under the Sea;"
Still there were none sharp as we!
February; Valentine;
"Cupid's Paradise" was fine!
Then we won in Inter-Class.
Time had come — the year was passed,
To the "Lake" we went again
On Sophomore year we said "Amen!"
Junior year was next in line.
We knew we'd have a good time!
We got started mighty quick —
All new officers we picked!
"Peachy" was the biggest man,
Close behind him Helen ran,

Matthew kept our treasury —
We'd be rich in '53!
Our first dance was "Pumpkin Trot"
We made money — quite a lot!
The next dance was plain, but fun —
"Junior Dance" — records we spun.
We had quite a time that year —
Mrs. Di Cap was a dear,
With her we went to New York —
Of "Paint Your Wagon" we still talk!
We had our card party soon
In November, not in June.
And on a nice night in May
We had our Prom — the best they say!
"Moonlight and Roses" the name,
Fun was had by all who came.
"Candlelight Trio" the band,
'Twas the best dance in the land!
Senior year rolled round at last.
This year, we knew, would go fast.
We were sure that he was sent . . .
So Karl became our PRESIDENT!
Joe took over as V.P.
While Lil kept our treasury,
Was our secretary too.
Yes, we had a job to do!
Our Senior Play was the best.
Karl and Marie led the rest.
"The Great Big Doorstep" — what a time!
All who saw it liked it fine.
Selling magazines was fun
And we found when we were done
We'd made a thousand or more —
By gosh, we would not be poor!
Then we saw "Mr. Pickwick"
Of all plays that was our pick.
We loved New York, all of us,
Our cry: "New York again or bust!"
Now the year is almost done
We know we've had lots of fun.
All through school it has been fine
We've all had such a good time!
There's one thing about our class:
Our friendships shall always last —
And in all minds we'll still be
The great class of '53!

SYNOPSIS OF PLAY

"The Great Big Doorstep" was "fished out" of the Mississippi River. The Crochet family held as their goal from then on — a house to fit The Doorsteps.

Mother Crochet plans it all: with a small loan (Papa has cricks and sirens and is unable to work steadily as a drainage expert) they'll be able to claim Shoepick's house for the back taxes. Then — the loan disappears. Uncle Dewey, a pompous riverboat captain, writes a generous check. — The check bounces. Finally Mama's lilies that have been hidden in the back away from the eyes of the landlady, furnish the wherewithal to buy the house.

Stage Set Designers: Ronnie Post, Charlotte Barris.

Adviser: Mr. Frani. Stage Manager: Roderic Wiltse.
Publicity: Albert Salvato.

Stage Manager: Roderic Wiltse. Prompters: Sally Blakelock, Sheryl McGrath, Mary Pavlovich. Properties: Mary Pavlovich, Joan DuBois.

Make-up: Mrs. Cunningham, Carol Smith, Nancy Ruth.

Lighting: David Clapper, Albert Salvato.

Evvie: The back steps are as rotten as the devil!
Mrs. Crochet: Elna slipped through and hurt her leg. Show Mrs. Dupré, Elna.
Fleece: I fell off the kitchen table last night right on my head! Feel that bump!
Mrs. Dupré: Never mind! Please!

Dewey: For three months I run my ship nilly up against the willows and nobody come out. They don't care about their Uncle Dewey till they want somethin'. Do they?
Elna: Look, Papa, funnies!
Commodore: Fine, fine!
Mrs. Crochet: You're too good to us, Dewey.

Mrs. Crochet: The ole house. It's dying.
Commodore: Shun defeat, Duck, shun defeat.
Mrs. Crochet: The ole house.
Commodore: This house was good for one thing anyway. One lass good scratch. Umm——

Mrs. Crochet: Duck, lookit! He can't get his mout' shut!
Commodore: Now ain't that a'pitcha! Ain't that a fine pitcha of a young man!
Arthur: Agadmaga — Aagarmaadgun.
Topal: Darn fool! Getting a pool ball stuck in his mouth!

Junior Advisory Board

The Rip Van Winkle Chapter holds its meetings twice a month under the sponsorship of Mrs. Sylvia.

Programs of historic interest, trips to historic places and attendance at Hudson Valley District meetings make up the activities.

The club visited the Shaker Museum at Old Chatham, and the House of History in Kinderhook.

In cooperation with the Thomas Cole Chapter, we were hosts to the Hudson Valley District Chapters.

We plan to go to the Roosevelt Shrine at Hyde Park and to the Ogden Mills Estate.

Rip Van Winkle Staff

"Creation is good."

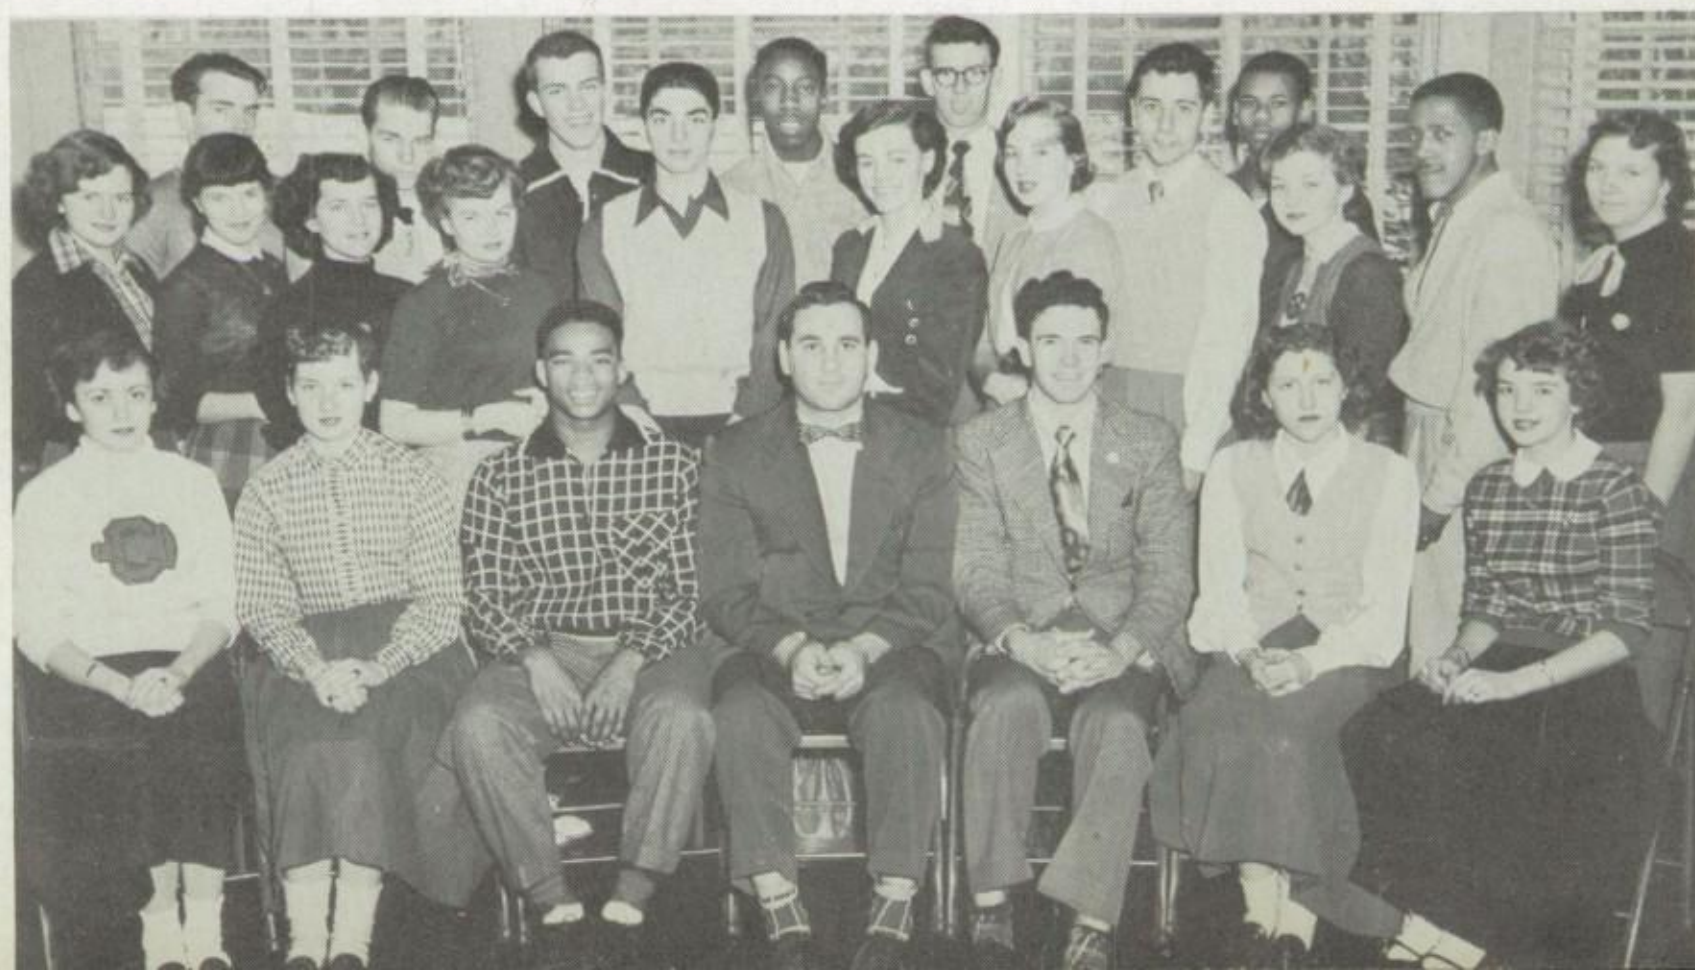

We, the seniors on the staff of the Rip Van Winkle, have endeavored to present a yearbook with interest to the students and faculty. We hope it shall serve as an inspiration and a pleasant memory not only to the class of 1953, but to the future graduates of Catskill High School.

"The most useful is the greatest."

Magazine Sales Chairmen and Prize Winners

"Lining our pockets with money."

"Ladies' Home Journal is a good bet." Yes, that was one of our calls during two weeks in October when we canvassed Catskill and its surrounding area to sell magazines. Never did we slow down in our effort to sell more and more magazines to raise money for our yearbook.

High School Band

"Music, music, music."

General Organization Council

This organization consists of the executives of the G. O. and one representative from each club and class. We bring to the G. O. our problems and worries in the hope that here we can get them solved.

"It is their care that the wheels run truly."

This organization is similar to the G. O. Council; here come the class and club presidents and a representative from each class and club.

Advisory Board

"Many hands make light work."

These are the chosen few who stand in the hall directing traffic and keeping order. To become a guide, one must have a good academic record, be a leader, and be friendly and helpful at all times.

Guides

"They set us straight."

Le Coq D'Or

The purpose of the French Club is to acquaint its members better with the life, history, customs and language of France. Our meetings are educational, but most of all, they are fun. Vive le Coq d'Or!

The Thespians

"The play's the thing."

Library Club

"Libraries are not made, they grow."

Under the direction of Mrs. Miller, we learn lots about books, authors and libraries. We help Mrs. Miller with library work and all in all, enjoy ourselves very much.

The Commerce Club was organized this year by girls who have completed two or more years of business training, and who are interested in a secretarial career. We learn how to run various office machines; we have speakers to tell us about the different fields that are open to us; and we plan to visit some of the offices in town.

Commerce Club

"Commerce is our business."

Banking Captains

"How pleasant it is to have money."

From those students who wish to save, we collect money, record it and send it to the Catskill Savings Bank.

Banking Tellers

Front Row: Janica, Caranglo, J. Sauerzopf, Whittaker, Vincent, Felter, Ruf. Second Row: Schermerhorn, Miller, Post, Mrs. Mott (Adviser), Ward, Pavlovich, Hendricks. Third Row: Gleason, Haines, Beare, Rose, Dickson, Vaughn. Fourth Row: Smith, Omphalius, Morrison, Sylvia, Jones, Taylor. Fifth Row: Hodor, Fegraus, Beare, R. Sauerzopf, Bromm, Quinn, Lewis. Sixth Row: Jaycox, Guy, Heath, Alverson, Gilmour, Holliday, Lane.

Front Row: Irene Colle, Marcia Wishengrad, Rose Cooper, Eleanore Coty, Carol Smith. Second Row: Miss McGrath, (Adviser), Carol Lerner, Pan Libman, Matthew Ostoyich, George Branch.

Echo Editors

The "Echo" this year is our pride and joy. We have reduced the expense of printing it by mimeographing it ourselves. And we have succeeded! We have a paper of which we can be justly proud!

Echo Reporters

"Words are the wings of action."

Senior Historical Society

"We have turned over many books together."

Ruf, Sylvia, Nagel (President), Griscom (Secretary), Mrs. Sylvia (Adviser), Sauerzopf, Madeline Biegen, Fatzinger (Vice President), Joe Biegen.

The aim of our group is, to create greater interest in the many historical sites which are within easy driving distance of Catskill, to visit, study, and enjoy them.

If it were not for us, many Friday mornings would be without assemblies, many class periods without visual aids, for we are the ones who run the machines that show the movies!

Projectionists

"They run the reel."

Wieler, Lane, Clapper, Valentine, Marsh, Sauerzopf, Friedman, Miller, Mr. Sylvia (Adviser), Naylor.

Ice Cream Sellers

"If I only had a dime."

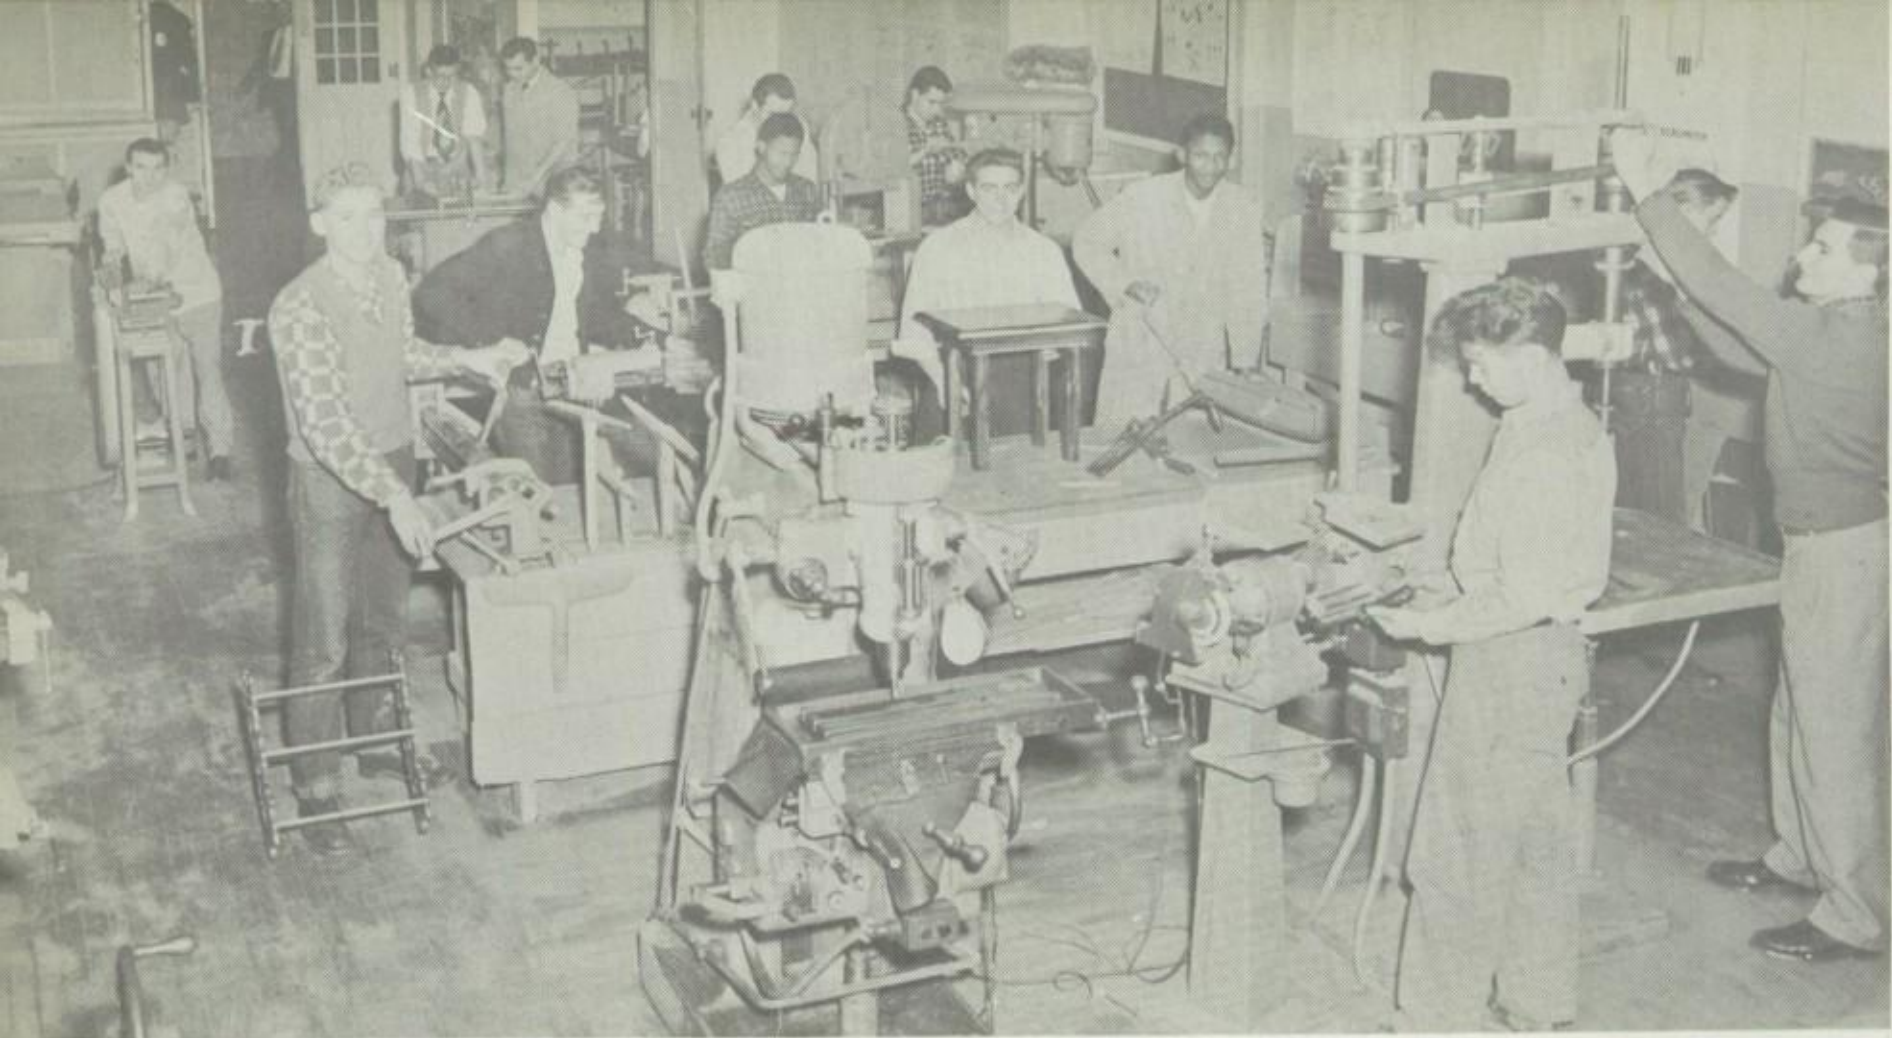

To help finance this yearbook, we have sold ice cream every noon to hungry students.

Our Cafeteria Staff

"The way to a man's heart . . ."

How did we ever get along without our good cafeteria meals?

Industrial Arts

SPORTS

OUR SNOW-BALL DANCE

VARSITY CHEERLEADERS

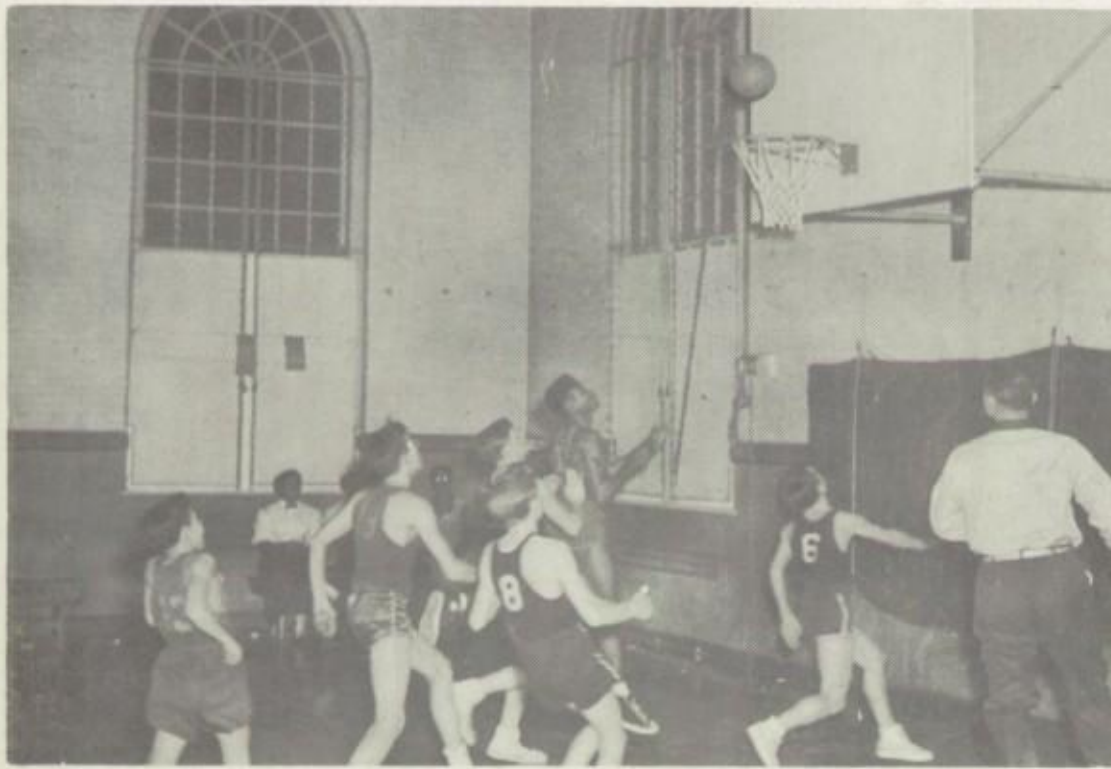

"A big cheer and a great welcome make a mighty game."

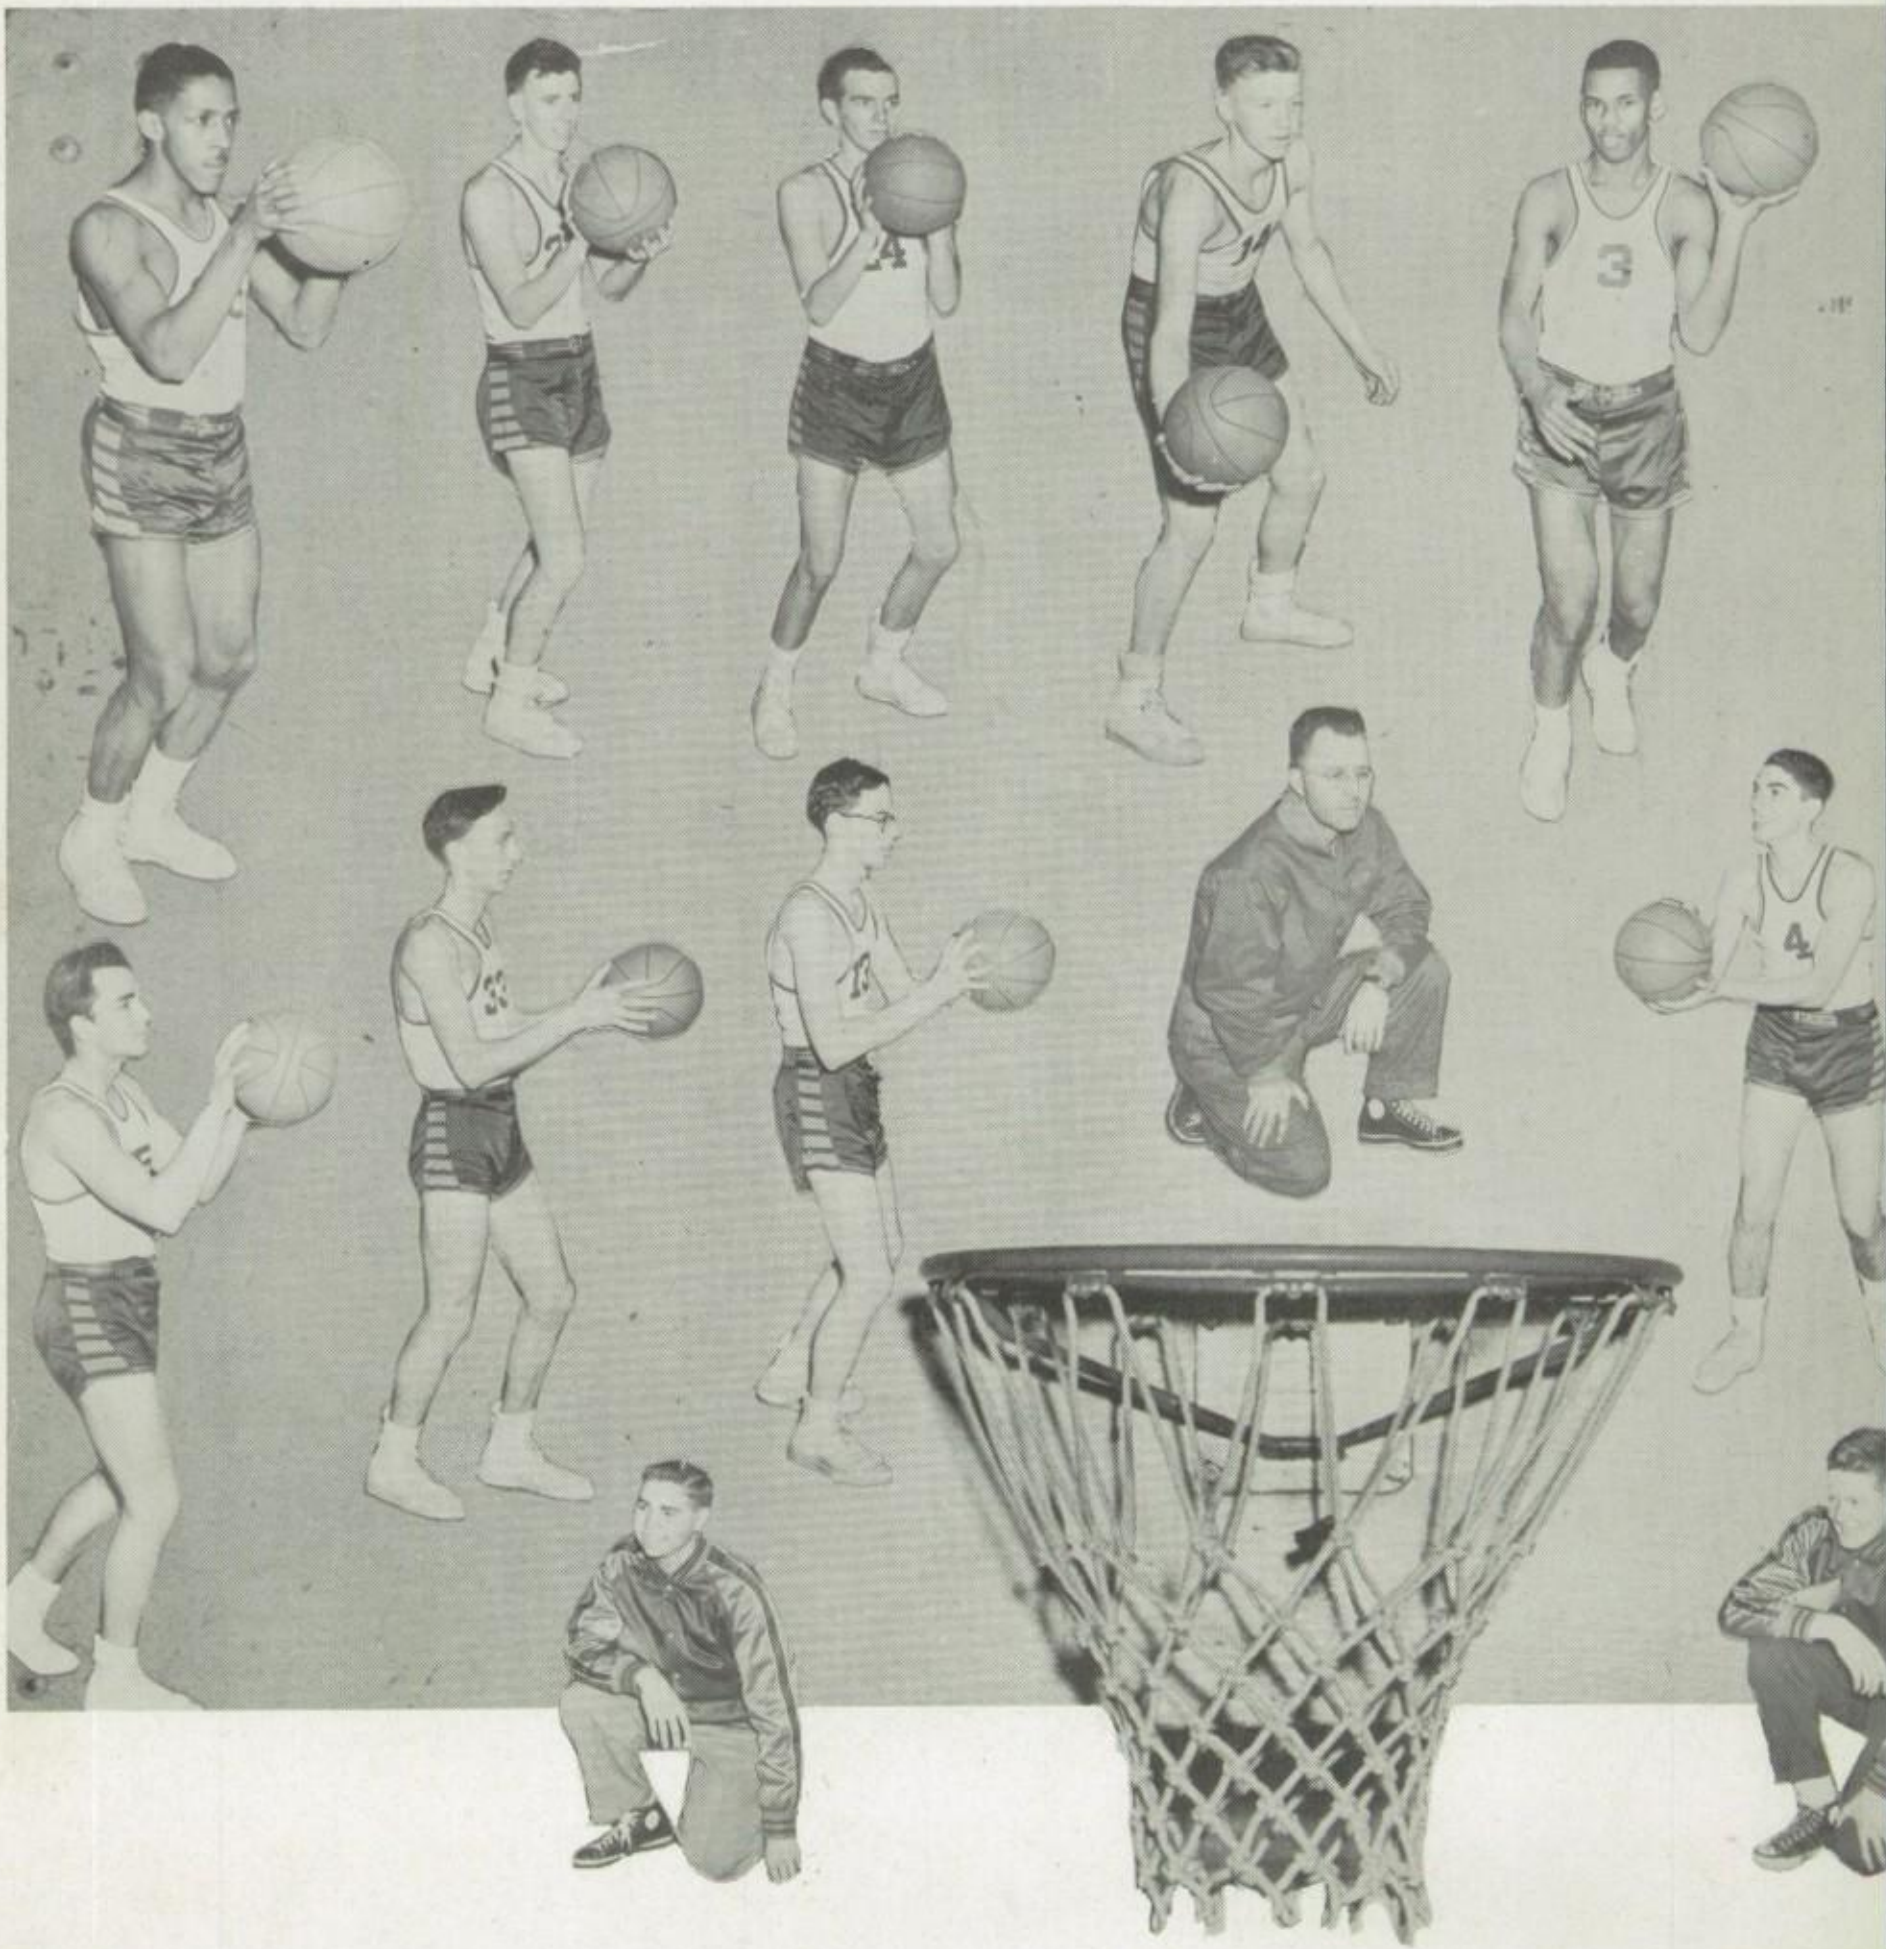

Learning to lead you in cheers has only been one of our worries! We worried also if you would yell loud enough! Maybe we are partly responsible for the teams' victories?

Irene Colle, Gloria Poplock, Marguerite Cooper, Grace Wyszomirski, Jean Shults, Phyllis Libman (Assistant Manager), Barbara Kreitner (Manager), Beverly Kelly.

This year's basketball team got off to a shaky start, but pulled itself together and finished the season with a winning record. The squad lost its first two games to Northville and Windham, but bounced back to take its next three in a row. Yet, it wasn't until near the end of the year that the boys settled down and played really fine basketball. It was then that they began to show they were one of the better teams produced by Catskill High in the last ten years.

The squad consisted primarily of seniors, who include Ralph Darling, Joe DiStefano, Keith Gilmour, Johnny Hagan, George Hallenbeck, Jimmy Jackson, Fred Mondun, Bob Pitts, Glen Reither, and Bob White. These boys helped make up a well-balanced team, and anyone of them was a threat to score.

The boys were hampered by ineligibilities throughout the season, but overcame their difficulties and gave CHS a basketball team to be proud of.

JUNIOR VARSITY BASKETBALL

"When in doubt, shoot."

Catskill High School's Jayvee squad enjoyed a very successful 1952-53 season. The boys started off in a cloud of dust, winning their first nine successive games of the year. Even when Arlington defeated them in game number ten, it was a thriller, with the final score being 50 to 49. A couple of Jayvee players are good material for next season's varsity team, but enough talented boys will remain to insure CHS of another fine Junior Varsity next season.

SOCCKER

"When in doubt, boot."

Catskill High's soccer forces completed another successful season. With experience lacking, the boys combined spirit, willingness to learn, and hard work, and finished the season with a 5-3-2 regular season record compiled with the first sectional win over Burnt Hills. The second sectional tilt was played in snow, freezing temperature and wind, Catskill losing to Middleburg in a hard fought contest. Departing seniors such as reliable Marty Fister, Joe DiStefano, George Hallenbeck, Stan Rose, Glen Reither, Fred Mondun, Bob Pitts, and our best scorer in the past years, Ralph Darling, will be long remembered for their spirit and drive. Others, such as Bill Macarelli, John Van Deusen, Buz Alverson and Fred Ward will be around again to prove their future worth.

BASEBALL 1951-1952

Catskill High's baseball team finished a strong schedule with an average record. Competing against Mother Nature's forces in cancellations and postponements, plus sore arms on the pitching staff, the team played heads-up ball. The presence of senior hurlers Bill Cooper and Marv Sims, steady, reliable catcher Vic Ferretti, plus fielders John Hodor and Louie

Scarcelli will be missed and remembered next year. Juniors Bob White, Glen Reither, Joe DiStefano and up-and-coming lower classmen should keep the baseball spirit alive for Catskill High School.

GOLF

Relatively a newcomer among Catskill sports, Golf has won many adherents who have made splendid records in inter-school matches.
